

Title IX – Sex Based Discrimination is Prohibited

What is Title IX?

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (“Title IX”) is a federal law that prohibits sex-based discrimination in all educational programs and activities, including athletic programs. No person shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity operated by the District. Title IX protects all participants in the District’s educational programs and activities, including students, parents, employees and job applicants. The District does not discriminate on the basis of sex. Discrimination on the basis of sex can include sexual harassment and sexual violence.

In addition to Title IX, the California Education Code prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in schools. (California Education Code 220-221.1) Other state and federal laws also prohibit discrimination and ensure equality in education. Please refer to Board Policies 0410, 4030, 4119.11, 4319.11, 5145.7 and Administrative Regulations 4030, 4119.11, 4319.11, 5145.7 for more information on the District’s anti-discrimination policies.

Title IX information provided here applies to every school site and to all District programs and activities.

When must a complaint be filed?

A complaint alleging unlawful discrimination or retaliation must be filed no later than six months from the date of the discrimination or retaliation occurred, or six months from when the complainant first learned of the unlawful discrimination. The Superintendent or designee may extend this timeline by up to ninety days for good cause, upon written request by the complainant setting forth the reasons for the extension.

How will a complaint be investigated?

Complaints filed under the District's Uniform Complaint Procedure will be investigated and a decision made within sixty calendar days of the District's receipt, unless the complainant agrees to an extension. The District's compliance officer or designee may interview alleged victims, alleged offenders and relevant witnesses. The Compliance officer may review available records, statements or notes related to the complaint, including evidence or information received from the parties during the investigation. The compliance officer may visit reasonably accessible locations where discrimination is alleged to have occurred. As appropriate, the District's compliance will be notified when a decision is made. Complaints that are not filed under the District's Uniform Complaint Procedure will be investigated and decided pursuant to the applicable procedure.

What happens when the investigation is complete?

For complaints filed under the Uniform Complaint Procedure, the compliance officer will prepare and send final written decision to the complainant and respondent, if any, within sixty calendar days of the District's receipt of the complaint unless this deadline is extended by mutual agreement.

The complainant or respondent may appeal the District's decision within fifteen calendar days to the California Department of Education. The appeal must specify the reason for the appeal and whether the District's facts are incorrect and/or the law is misapplied. The appeal must include a copy of the original complaint to the District and a copy of the District's decision. For more information, visit California Department of Education's Webpage on Uniform Complaint Procedures: <http://www.cde/ca.gov/re/cp/uc/index.asp>

For complaints alleging unlawful discrimination based on state law, the complainant may pursue available civil law remedies, including seeking assistance from mediation centers or public/private interest attorneys, sixty calendar days after filing a appeal with the California Department of Education. (California Education Code 262.3) Note that the sixty day moratorium does not apply to complaints seeking injunctive relief in state courts or to discrimination based on federal law. (California Education Code 262.3)

Complaints may also be filed with the United States Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights, within 180 days of the alleged discrimination. (Contact Info on Page 4) For more information visit: <http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/complaintintro.html>.

If the compliance officer finds that a complaint has merit, the District will take appropriate corrective action.
